MICHIGAN'S BLUEBERRY PROGRAMS

Our MISSION

To provide innovative means for grower unity by focusing on Michigan representation, issues, & resources while providing an effective means of communicating information to the industry.

The MBBAC is a grower member organization that participates in legislative and governmental affairs and activities, often in collaboration with other agricultural groups, committees, and coalitions to benefit the Michigan Blueberry Grower.*

Blueberry
COMMISSION

Michigan's blueberry checkoff program investing in and ensuring future harvests through a critically needed, industry driven research platform.

Michigan Blueberry Commission's primary goal is simply to leverage grower dollars (3/10 of a cent is collected on every pound produced) for funding research, development, education, promotions, and to apply for grants to help in obtaining additional funds to support programs that benefit the Michigan Blueberry Grower.
